7.00pm	Our local Highland Dancers display their talents in the Octagonal Room
7.30 pm	Gourmet Celebration Ceilidh Chef Garry pulls out all the stops to create a most memorable meal and a fitting way to end the old year and bring in the new. Put on your dancing shoes, dust off your finery, and enjoy a traditional Highland ceilidh.
11.59	Count down to the New Year, followed by a traditional Auld Lang Syne sing along. Then whet your whistle with a complimentary glass of bubbly before the last session of ceilidh dancing.

1st January

9.00 - 11.30 am	Enjoy a gentle start to the New Year with a long lie and leisurely breakfast
12 Noon	Guided dog walks. Take your four legged friend out again to discover another beautiful local walk.
3.00 - 4.00 pm	Traditional afternoon tea with home baked scones and other sweet treats whilst listening to the soothing sounds of the Clarsach.
7 for 7.30pm	New Year's Day Dinner and Quiz. Chef starts the year off with more culinary delights including more traditional dishes. Test your grey matter`s resolve with our Dinner Quiz. "Quiz Master" Chris will be testing your general knowledge and retention of useless facts. We will see how many brain cells are still in operation after the previous night's celebrations.

2nd January

8.30 – 11.00 am	A hearty breakfast and a Highland farewell for those that must leave. Do not feel you have to go just yet! I am sure we will have a few rooms' available at special rates, for those you wish to extend their stay.
